1) Keep Wuhan Walking Project, Silvan Hagenbrock, Sonja Broy, Dr. Eduard Kögel

An online magazine on Wuhan in the form of a multi-media kaleidoscope, initiated by CITYMAKERS in February 2020 and implemented in cooperation with the Goethe-Institut Peking.

2) CITYMAKERS Accelerator Projects

Knut Wimberger, Green Steps Shanghai -ARK: Reconnect with Nature
Marlene Welzel, Wohnbuddy Vienna: Cross-Generational Co-Living
Jonas Schorr, URBAN IMPACT Berlin, Accelerator-Mentor.

Out of the 5 CITYMAKERS- accelerator projects 2 will be presented that night in person, others are to be seen in short video presentations.

- 3) CITYMAKERS-2020 Video Walk Project, Kika Yang, CITYMAKERS Co-Curator and Video-Walk Project Mentor

46 applicants had responded to the CITYMAKERS-2020 Video Walk Project call in June 2020. 22 were selected for the CITYMAKERS China-Europe dialogue context. Topics range from Sino-German Traces in Berlin and post-colonialism to urban transformation in Shanghai or neighborhood explorations in Hangzhou and Chengdu. A selected number will be shown this evening at AEDES, the premiere of all of them will happen at the following night at C*SPACE Berlin.

- 4) CITYMAKERS-Suitcase & Mappings, Wu Yimeng, Katja Hellkötter

Along the course of this 5-year dialogue program the CITYMAKERS core team has developed various "learning cities tools" in cooperation with graphic designer and artist Wu Yimeng, who has accompanied the project from the very beginning. The prototype of the STADTMACHER-Koffer as well as a selection of the maps will be presented.

- 5) CITYMAKERS-Ruhr Network, Sebastian Schlecht, Founder of lala.ruhr and CITYMAKERS-Ruhr Representative.
